AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE DISPUTES, WAIVER OF RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL, AND WAIVER OF RIGHT TO BRING OR PARTICIPATE IN CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, OR PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTIONS

You agree that we will resolve any disputes between us through binding and final arbitration instead of through court proceedings. You hereby waive any right to a jury trial of any dispute you have with The Container Store ("Sponsor"). Neither you nor Sponsor may bring a claim against the other as a class action, representative action, or private attorney general action. Neither you nor Sponsor may act as a private attorney general or class representative, nor participate as a member of a class of claimants, with respect to any dispute or claim between us. These Terms of Service evidence a transaction in interstate commerce, and thus the arbitration will be subject to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16 et seq. ("FAA").

As used in this arbitration agreement and waiver, the terms "Sponsor" and "you" include Sponsor's and your respective owners, officers, directors, shareholders, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, predecessors in interest, successors, attorneys, and assigns. This arbitration agreement and waiver will be interpreted broadly, and will encompass all disputes between you and Sponsor, including, but not limited to claims that relate in any way to the relationship between you and Sponsor, your participating in this Sweepstakes, regardless of legal or equitable theory.

This arbitration agreement and waiver does not preclude you from seeking action by federal, state, or local government agencies. Such agencies can, if the law allows, seek relief from us on your behalf. Moreover, you and Sponsor have the right to bring qualifying claims in small claims court.

Arbitration of any dispute or claim must be initiated within one year after the date on which the basis for the dispute or claim first arises, or within the period of time provided by applicable statute of limitations or other law, whichever is shorter. Unless you and Sponsor both agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not join your claim(s) or Sponsor's claim(s) with any other claim, and may not preside over any representative or class proceedings. All disputes between you and Sponsor shall be governed by and resolved in accordance with, the laws of the United States of America and the State of Texas, without regard to their choice of law provisions.

Each party retains the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for provisional and/or conservatory relief, including pre-arbitral attachments or injunctions, and any such request shall not be deemed incompatible with this agreement to arbitrate, nor a waiver of the right to have disputes submitted to arbitration as provided in this Agreement.

The arbitration will be conducted by the JAMS dispute resolution service. To initiate arbitration, you or Sponsor must submit a claim to JAMS, 8401 N. Central Expressway, Suite 610, Dallas, TX 75225, (214) 744-5267, with notice to the other party by certified mail. Notice to Sponsor should be sent to: The Container Store, Inc. Attn: Legal Department, 500 Freeport Pkwy, Suite 100, Coppell, TX 75019. For more information regarding JAMS, you may visit its website at <http://www.jamsadr.com/>. The arbitration will be conducted under the JAMS Streamlined Arbitration Rules and Procedures ("JAMS Rules") in effect on the date of commencement of the arbitration, as modified by these Terms of Service. The arbitration will be conducted by a single arbitrator, selected in accordance with the JAMS Rules.

Unless the arbitrator decides or the parties mutually agree otherwise, the arbitration will be based entirely on the written submissions of the parties and documents submitted to the arbitrator, unless the parties agree or the arbitrator orders otherwise. The parties will, at a minimum, exchange all documents upon which they intend to rely in the arbitration, within sixty (60) days of commencement of the arbitration. The arbitrator will have the power to require either party to provide the other with additional documents, as reasonably necessary for either party to assert its claims or defenses in the arbitration.

If the arbitrator determines, at the request of a party or independently, that the personal presence of the parties is necessary, then the arbitrator may direct the parties to participate and the parties agree to do so. In that case, the parties agree that the place of the arbitration shall be at a mutually agreeable location in Dallas County, Texas.

For any arbitration in which you claim less than $1,000, Sponsor will reimburse you for the cost of your filing fee with JAMS and will pay all of JAMS' other costs and fees. For claims between $1,000 and $10,000, you will pay any filing fee required by JAMS, and Sponsor will pay all of JAMS' other costs and fees. If you bring a claim for more than $10,000, payment of fees and other costs to JAMS will be governed by the JAMS rules. Except to the extent authorized by statute and awarded by the arbitrator, each party will otherwise bear the cost of preparing and presenting its own case.

If the arbitrator determines that any claim brought by you is frivolous, or if the arbitrator's award to you is less than the amount offered to you by Sponsor prior to arbitration in exchange for a settlement and release of your claim, then payment of JAMS' costs and fees will be governed by the JAMS rules, and you agree to reimburse Sponsor for any costs or fees that it paid that otherwise would have been your responsibility under the JAMS rules.

In issuing any award, the arbitrator shall issue a written decision that is sufficiently detailed to inform both you and Sponsor of the reasons for his or her decision. The arbitrator may award declaratory or injunctive relief, but only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only as necessary to provide the relief warranted by that party's individual claim. Any award may be confirmed and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. All post-award proceedings will be governed by the FAA. Any proceedings to enforce, vacate, or modify any arbitration award will be governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its choice of law provisions.

The content of the arbitral proceedings and any rulings or award shall be kept confidential by the parties and the arbitrator except: (i) to the extent that disclosure may be required of a party to fulfill a legal duty, protect or pursue a legal right, or enforce or challenge an award or other relief granted by the arbitrator in bona fide legal proceedings before a state or federal court or other judicial authority; or (ii) with the consent of all parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, either party may disclose matters relating to the arbitration or the arbitral proceedings where necessary for the preparation or presentation of a claim or defense in this arbitration.
